About Rimon Law Group

Rimon Law Group is the first high-end virtual law firm, offering the highest level of legal services, without the overhead. Our corporate law services are designed for any company wishing to cut their legal costs without sacrificing quality, whether they are Fortune 500 companies or startups and small businesses.

Each of our attorneys has at least 10 years of legal experience, obtained at top law firms and companies in the U.S. In addition, our attorneys hold degrees from the nation's top universities and law schools. Because we employ only partner-level attorneys, our clients realize savings due to our increased efficiencies that come from experience.

Our low-overhead, virtual model focuses spending only on items that contribute to better client service. This model drastically reduces our carbon footprint, and saves our clients money – often 50% or more.

The Change We Seek

Rimon believes in providing unparalleled service to our clients at an affordable price, giving small companies access to quality services they might not otherwise afford. We also believe in being responsible and dedicated stewards of our communities and our environment. Our participation in our communities involves providing free services to non-profits, advancing clean technology initiatives and donating 10% of our profits to charitable organizations. By eliminating wasteful office space and our attorneys' commute, and by using technology to deliver our services, Rimon operates with a tiny fraction of the carbon footprint generated by traditional law firms.
